THE SAWTELLE TRAGEDY.

Hiram Says Dr. Blood Shot His Brother, and That He Tries to Prevent Him. Persuateuri, N. H., June B.-It is reported that Isaac R. Sawtelle has given to the Governor the story of how his brother was killed. In it Isane admits that he was present when his brother was shot in Labanon, Me., but says the shooting was done by an agent of Dr. Charles Blood. The shooting was done because Hiram refused to sign a document releasing certain property which he was requested to do by Dr. Blood.

His brother's missing head, Isaac says, was thrown into the ocean from one of the Portland boats by the man who Drage asserts that he tried to save his brother's life, but to no purpose, and adds that there was not a particle of direct evidence at his trial to connect him in any way with the murder.
